

Contents

List of Maps	x
List of Figures	xi
List of Documents	xiii
Preface	xv
Preface to the Second Edition	xvii
Timeline	xix
1 The Practice of History	1
The Lelantine War	1
The Lelantine War Deconstructed	4
What Is History?	8
History as Literature	11
Method and Theory	12
2 Sources, Evidence, Dates	16
Evaluating Sources	16
Dating Archaic Poets	21
Non-Literary Evidence	26
Ancient Chronography	29
Archaeological Dating	33
3 The End of the Mycenaean World and Its Aftermath	41
Mycenaean Greece	41
Gauging the Historicity of the Dorian Migration	44

Alternative Explanations	51
The Loss and Recovery of Writing	56
Whose Dark Age?	59
4 Communities of Place	68
Defining the Polis	68
The Urban Aspect of the Polis : Houses, Graves, and Walls	72
Political and Economic Functions	81
Cultic Communities	85
Polis and Ethnos	90
5 New Homes Across the Seas	96
On the Move	99
The Credibility of Colonial Foundation Stories	105
Pots and Peoples	111
A Spartan Foundation? Taras, Phalanthos, and the Partheniai	116
Hunger or Greed?	120
6 The Changing Nature of Authority	126
Charting the Genesis of the State	126
Kings or "Big-Men"?	127
The Emergence of an Aristocracy	134
Laws and Institutions	138
The Return of the "Big-Man"	144
Excursus I. A Cautionary Tale: Pheidon of Argos	154
7 Fighting for the Fatherland	165
A Hoplite Revolution?	165
Some More Equal Than Others	174
Conquest, Territory, and Exploitation	181
Excursus II. Archaeological Gaps: Attica and Crete	190
8 Defining the Political Community	200
Looking to the End	200
The Role of the Dêmos and the Great Rhetra	205
Drawing Boundaries	211
Land, Labor, and the Crisis in Attica	214
The "Second Sex"	220

Excursus III. Evaluating the Spartan Mirage	227
9 The City of Theseus	235
The End of the Tyranny	235
The Birth of Democracy?	238
The Unification of Attica	243
Theseus: Democrat or Autocrat?	251
The (A)typicality of Athens	255
10 Making a Living	260
Conceptualizing Ancient Economic Activity	260
A Peasant Economy?	262
Plying the Seas	268
The Introduction of Coinage	275
Excursus IV. The Rise of Persia and the Invasions of Greece	282
11 Imagining Greece	290
"Greek" Culture: Unity and Diversity	290
Greeks and Others: The External Dimension	293
The Emergence of Panhellenism: The Internal Dimension	301
The Invention of the Barbarian	308
12 Writing the History of Archaic Greece	312
The First Sacred War: Fact or Fiction?	312
The Limits of Narrative History	317
Dividing up Time and Space	320
Abbreviations and Glossary of Literary Sources	326
Works Cited in the Further Reading	330
Guide to Electronic Resources	339
Index	342